

Raise the Colors: A Memorial Day Remembrance Run

Join Law Enforcement in Lexington County along with Sorinex, Savage Craft Ale Works, and Shellback Tactical to keep our Hero's legacy alive through Raise the Colors: A Memorial Day Remembrance Run, to be held Memorial Day, Monday, May 30, 2022.

Every Memorial Day it is important to remember those who stood in the path of adversity and faced it head-on and gave the ultimate sacrifice for those they chose to serve. We want you to join us and honor those who did so with Raise the Colors: A Memorial Day Remembrance Run. It is not just a workout. It allows us to humble ourselves through a bit of sweat and pain to honor those that sacrificed everything for our freedom.

On Memorial Day we will be meeting at Savage Craft Ale Works in West Columbia to do the Murph workout that consists of a one-mile run, 100 pull-ups, 200 push-ups, 300 air squats, and another mile run all while wearing a weighted vest.

All proceeds will be provided to Serve & Connect which is a South Carolina nonprofit working directly with law enforcement, community stakeholders, and citizen leaders, who aspire to improve neighborhoods challenged by poverty, crime, and neglect by building trust, optimizing collaboration, and fostering a shared sense of pride. Please lend us your support as we work to enhance the level of fitness of those who serve.

Serve & Connect is a registered 501(c)3 non-profit.
